CLASSES

Silkscreen 101

Aspiring designers come learn how to turn a simple image into a vibrant fashion statement. In a band? Come learn how to create your own merchandise. Learn how to prepare a screen, set the image, and make a design that will last. Students are expected to bring their own T-shirts or other items to print on.

2 hour classes. By appointment ONLY

Homezone

KTUB Homezone provides homeschooled teens, a unique high school setting that offers a variety of classes in the fine arts. Instructors provide the teens with classes that enhance their knowledge of the fine arts and humanities. Participants also have the opportunity to connect with their peers and students from other local cities.

Tuesdays & Thursdays, 9:30 am – 1:30 pm

CAFÉ 321

The KTUB CAFÉ 321 Training Program is a 4 week program designed to teach teens the skills required to work at a local service establishment. This program provides both coffee specific and broad based professional skills. Upon completion of course, participants will receive a professional reference as well as a written recommendation of employment to any business of your choice from KTUB staff.

Thursdays, 4:00 – 5:30 pm

Barista Skills Workshop

Don't have time for a six week class but want to add barista skills to your resume or make the perfect macchiato at home? Try this one time class. Learn how to pull shots, steam milk, assemble drinks and maintain an espresso machine.

1.5 hour classes. By appointment ONLY.

CLUBS

Youth for Diversity

YDP is a FREE cross-cultural youth program for teens, ages 13-18 years, that allows them to explore their values and beliefs, gain knowledge about world cultures, and develop skills to incorporate in school, work and life. Watch foreign movies, experience international arts and craft, and indulge in some international delicacies. Mingle with exchange and international students and participate in fun activities with them. The objective of Youth for Diversity is to allow you to learn to respect differences in each other, be more open to inter-cultural experiences, and ultimately develop advocates within our community.

*For more information or details call us at (425) 822-3088
 or email: ngupta@seattleyymca.org
 Wednesday, 3pm-5pm • Classes begin in September.*

REQUEST A PROGRAM:

Want Youth for Diversity to come to your classroom?

A YDP program in your classroom brings your students an engaging, hands-on, multi-cultural experience through fun filled activities. The programs are administered by our Y staff who can customize the classes based on your needs.

TFAB: Teen Feedback Advisory Board

Are you looking for a leadership opportunity? Do you have thoughts and ideas that need to be heard? Teen Feedback is the place for you. This advisory board aims to provide KTUB youth with opportunities to cultivate their ideas, opinions, and recommendations on KTUB events, activities, and programs, and the larger community. The committee gives youth a voice in KTUB programming and fosters community engagement through leadership opportunities. Weekly meetings and officer positions also make Teen Feedback an ideal place to gain valuable leadership experience for any resume or college application.
